First Wednesday The Doolittle Raid January 7 @ 10:00am

Santee City Hall
10601 Magnolia Ave,
Santee CA 92071

Conceived in January 1942 after the devastating attacks on Pearl Harbor, the Doolittle Raid was the first American air operation to strike the archipelago of Japan.

Join USS Midway Museum docent John Landry as he tells the story of this influential joint Army-Navy bombing project.

Santee Historical Society Museum & Walker Preserve Trail

The event begins at the Santee Historical Society Barn, followed by a scenic walk along Walker Preserve Trail. Enjoy an interpretive experience led by the San Diego River Park Foundation, highlighting the unique wildlife, habitats and history of the San Diego River corridor.

Join us for a fun Painting Workshop where we will be instructed to create a piece of art from start to finish. San Diego artist LeoAngelo will teach us how to paint in an engaging, social and relaxing atmosphere. No prior experience is needed, but if you do have some art know-how that is great. We will be using acrylic paint and there will be 2 hours of art instruction. In the end you will get to keep your artwork on a 16x20 canvas.

*All materials included
